

SUMMER MUSIC ED WORKSHOPS

School of Visual & Performing Arts

What we offer

Seton Hill University's Music Education Program is proud to offer three fantastic professional development opportunities for music educators.

The workshops scheduled this summer focus on the needs of general music education as well as supporting beginning music teachers.

We are ACT 48 approved and provide Graduate Credit Options.

July 2022	August 2022	August 2022
Gordon Institute for Music Learning (GIML)  Elementary General Music Level 1	Beginning Music Teacher Bootcamp	Summer General Music Workshop
Musicianship and audiation-based approaches for elementary general music curriculum development  INFO HERE 	Customized support for preservice and new music teachers between 1 – 5 years in the profession.  INFO HERE 	Two-day intensive workshop featuring activities and experiences from key general music methods and approaches.  INFO HERE

Registration

GIML ELEM. GEN. PDL
LEVEL 1 WORKSHOP

BEGINNING TEACHER
BOOTCAMP

TWO-DAY GENERAL
MUSIC WORKSHOP

For More Information

@setonhillmusiced

jvaughanmarra@setonhill.edu