

2019 FALL WORKSHOP
NOVEMBER 25, 2019

Bridges, Highways, Byways: Connections Across Music Education in the Pittsburgh Region

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

DR. BRENDA BRENNER
(INDIANA UNIVERSITY)

DR. KATE FITZPATRICK
(UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN)

Workshop Location:
Duquesne University
Mary Pappert School of Music
408 Magee St. Pittsburgh, PA 15219

9AM — 4PM

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

9 AM Plenary Session

Dr. Brenda Brenner

Getting beyond "Good!" Effective Use of Language in the Classroom and Studio

10 AM

Dr. Kate Fitzpatrick

Setting Goals and Developing your own Definition of Success in the Instrumental Classroom

Dr. Mark Boyle

Achieving Choral Blend Through Placement

Dr. Jessica Vaughan-Marra

Life skills and The Music Classroom: How to Support Students with Exceptionalities in Special Education Music Classes

11 AM

Dr. Brenda Brenner

Winning at Warm-ups

Shawn Funk

The Music Educator Career Cycle: An Ongoing Metamorphosis

Steve Donnelly

Express Yourself! Joyful Movement in the Elementary Music Room

12 PM - Lunch (Provided)

1 PM - Plenary Session

Dr. Kate Fitzpatrick

Building Upon Strengths in Urban, Rural, and Under-Resourced Schools

2 PM

Dr. Brenda Brenner

Setting up for Success

Dr. Christopher Marra

Culture By Design

Bridget Faulk & Cheryl Water

Service Learning: Connecting the Choral Classroom to Community

Scott Koter

Administrator session "Building Professional Credibility"

All PMEA D1 Members Welcome to Attend